

Attention Oklahoma Veterinarians, Veterinary Technicians and Veterinary Professional Students

Basic Animal Rescue Training (BART), in partnership with the Oklahoma City Kennel Club, is looking for Oklahoma veterinary professionals to help train emergency responders (firefighters, law enforcement and EMTs) to respond to animals in disasters and emergencies. Training topics include animal restraint and rescue, emergency assessment, basic emergency medical treatment and CPR.

We are currently recruiting volunteers and trainers now! Please email jon.pritchard@bartsaveslive.org or call 612-282-1894 now to join this new and exciting opportunity!
